Accreditation

Sant'Anna is accredited by Cognia and the Brazilian Ministry of Education. All students enrolled in the International Program follow the college preparatory American diploma, completing 26 Carnegie units distributed as demonstrated. In addition to the American diploma, students with academic Portuguese, follow the Brazilian diploma requirements as demonstrated. Sant'Anna is one of the twenty Brazilian schools to be recognized as a Google for Education Reference School.

Dual Diploma

By the completion of the High School international program, Sant'Anna students receive a Dual Diploma (Brazilian and International Curriculum Diplomas)

K12 Private Academy

Students who do not complete the Brazilian diploma program are enrolled in comprehensive courses through K12 International Academy. These courses are designated with an IP on the school transcript.

The students that do not speak Portuguese fluently attend Portuguese Language Learning classes (PLL), the ones that want to take an online course as a elective and the ones that want to take a AP or Honors course should participate in this program!

K12, Honors, and Advanced Placement courses are available to all students in the International Program. K12 much like our school, is accredited by Cognia. Number of students involved in these courses in 2022: 12 - Number of courses chosen by students in 2022: 20.

Diploma Requirements, Grading Scale, and Class Ranks

Participation in the Student Service Learning Program (extracurricular and volunteer work) is a graduation requirement. The 80-hour expectation is based upon a student studying at Sant'Anna for four years and is prorated for students entering after grade 9.

Due to the nature of our school and its relatively small class sizes, Sant'Anna does not provide the specific rank of its students. The cumulative GPA of Sant'Anna reflects courses taken at Sant'Anna only. Grades from previous schools are not included. The numerical equivalents used in determining GPA follow NASSP (National Association of Secondary School Principals) guidelines.
